
2010 Sangiovese

Winemaker Notes

2010 Sangiovese

This rich, full bodied wine is an excellent example of the variety. It has powerful berry aromas, overlaid with hints of tea, spice, eucalyptus and mint. The flavors are rich, concentrated, and carry over to a long, satisfying aftertaste.

We are proud of our sustainable practices, including: solar power generation, composting of winery and paper waste, maintaining wildlife habitat and natural pest control, cover cropping and erosion control, recycling, and social responsibility.

DESCRIPTION

This rich, full bodied wine is an excellent example of the variety, and is produced from sustainably farmed grapes. It is a native of Tuscany in Northern Italy which has adapted well to Sierra Foothill soils. It has powerful berry aromas, overlaid with hints of tea, spice, leather, eucalyptus and mint. The flavors are rich and concentrated and carry over to a long, satisfying finish.
