

GOOD VALUE

*Connoisseur's Guide,
January 2010*

89
points

2007 CHARDONNAY

“Full, rich mouthfeel and tropical goodness with a finish that doesn't stop. This was more than a steal!” Grace Hoffman,
Nov. 9, 2009: Cellarmistress.blogspot.com

These grapes were grown in the Scheid Vineyards of Monterey, which produce some of the best wines in the state. The aroma's of apple peel and crème brulee literally jump out of the glass, followed by flavors of key lime pie and a butter crust.

GOOD VALUE

*Connoisseur's Guide,
January 2010*

89
points

2007 CHARDONNAY

“Full, rich mouthfeel and tropical goodness with a finish that doesn't stop. This was more than a steal!” Grace Hoffman,
Nov. 9, 2009: Cellarmistress.blogspot.com

These grapes were grown in the Scheid Vineyards of Monterey, which produce some of the best wines in the state. The aroma's of apple peel and crème brulee literally jump out of the glass, followed by flavors of key lime pie and a butter crust.