WINEMAKERS NOTES

From our Lubenko Vineyard, planted on native rootstock very early in the 20th century comes this rich, multi-faceted wine. Dark cherry red and full-bodied, it shows a purity of fruit and hints of minerality. It is well textured, with a signature brambly component exemplifying its mountain character. The aromas are reminiscent of spring lilacs and fruit compote with hints of sandalwood and subtle vanilla notes.

PAIRINGS

Best paired with a roasted rack of lamb, smoked meats, ripe soft cheeses, and Szechuan-style beef.
